

Contents

Abbreviations	vii	PART III: APOLOGY, RESTITUTION & REPARATION: THE CHALLENGE OF POSTCOLONIAL RECONCILIATION	231
Preface and Acknowledgements	ix	10. A Mute Conversation: The Rise of the Reparations Issue	233
Introduction: A Special Postcolonial and Transnational Relationship	1	11. Half an Apology – Political Re-Alignments	247
PART I: THE BURDEN OF HISTORY	11	12. The Saga of the Skulls: Restitution Without Recognition	273
1. Namibia's Century of Colonialism – a Fragmented Past in an Unequal Society	13	Conclusion: Perspectives in the Long Aftermath of Genocide	317
2. Germany: From Late Coloniser to First Postcolonial Nation to Postcolonial Amnesia	49	Glossary	331
3. The First Genocide of the 20th Century and the Holocaust: Structural Parallels – Discursive Continuities?	79	Bibliography	335
4. Namibia's Germany: Transnational Implications of Settler Colonialism	99	About the author	378
5. The Namibian Connection in Denialism	117	About the cover photograph	378
6. The Windhoek Rider: Contested Terrain, Multiple Meanings	147
PART II: COMMUNITY, COMMEMORATION AND PERFORMANCE	169
7. Communal Reconstruction and Subaltern Traditions	171
8. Constructing and Claiming Identities and Spaces: Commemorations in Southern and Central Namibia	179
9. Beyond a Fragmented Image of History	221		